

Resource Conservation District of Tehama County's Mobile Irrigation Lab

ICAN

Irrigation Consulting Ambassadors Network
Spring 2016 Workshop

Wednesday, April 6th, 9 - 11am

Speakers & Schedule

- 💧 9:00 AM - How to Determine Irrigation Schedules
-Dan Johnson, State Water Management Engineer, NRCS
- 💧 9:30 AM - The Latest in Irrigation Management Tools
-Tom Devol, Director of Grower Services, Puresense
- 💧 10:00 AM - Index Use of Soils Information
-Greg Baker, CCA, Agronomy Sales & Consulting
- 💧 10:30 AM - Tips & Strategies to Improve Efficiency
-Kevin Greer, Mobile Irrigation Lab Manager

Event Location: USDA Service Center, 2 Sutter St. Red Bluff

iCAN - A network of irrigators who will receive education and training in an informational setting with the goal of creating industry-wide irrigation efficiency leaders whose ideas will begin to spread and become common practices.

There will be 3 door prizes valued at $50, $75 and $100 each!

These workshops are expected to fill quickly.

Please RSVP Kevin Greer at, 527-3013 x102

kevin@tehamacountyrcd.org

